Our schools are part of the SIS Group, a pioneer in the bilingual education arena since 1999. SIS operates eight bilingual (English/German) day schools in Switzerland and 16 schools worldwide.

Using the immersion method of language learning, SIS invites children to dive headfirst into the foreign language. Half of the lessons are taught by native speakers of English, the other half by native speakers of German. It is not only in the classroom that English and German play equal roles but also in all other parts of SIS’ diverse day-to-day school life.

The immersion method promotes children’s language acquisition as well as their cognitive development – for example, linguistic awareness, creativity and their ability to think outside the box. Bilingualism, however, is not a prerequisite for joining SIS at any level. Special programmes help students to quickly bring their German and English skills up to the necessary level.

If you are considering bilingual education for your child, have a look at the following key advantages of sending your child to SIS:

• Continuous education from kindergarten to college.
• Day school structure with lunch, before and after school care as well as exciting extracurricular activities - also during school holidays.
• Students are prepared for both nationally and internationally recognised qualifications such as the Swiss bilingual Matura and the International Baccalaureate Diploma (IB).
• Encourages rapid integration into the local community – also for parents.
• Instruction using the immersion method over a number of years results in near-native fluency in the second language.
• SIS places equal emphasis on an international outlook and close ties to the local community. Students graduate as global citizens with a strong sense of their origins.

Experience how SIS puts its educational concept into action at any of the eight upcoming SIS Open House events in your area.
